

Lesson 2: Inquiring About an Ad

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Shinji is currently looking for a job. He has found an interesting job advertisement. He wants to apply for the job, but he is worried about his age. He has decided to call the company to find out if he could still apply for the job.

Shinji: Good morning, Ma'am. My name is Shinji Tanaka. I'm calling about a job advertisement.

Mary: Good morning, Mr. Tanaka. How can I help you?

Shinji: Do you have an age limit for applicants? I'm already in my forties.

Mary: As long as you are healthy and well-qualified for the job, your age shouldn't be a problem.

Shinji: That's good. Should I submit my CV in person, or would you prefer receiving it via email?

Mary: It would be better to send your resume through email.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. You must pick up the documents in person.
2. I wonder if I should drop these papers off in person.
3. The company president thanked the workers in person.

* in person / (代理等でなく)直接本人が、自分で

3. Your Task

During your interview, you were asked this question: What made you decide to apply for this position?

Answer it as clearly as possible.

4. Let's Talk

How should we dress for a job interview?

What is your dream job?

What is the best way to pass a job interview?

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words as precisely as possible.

Image courtesy of phasinphoto / FreeDigitalPhotos.net