

Lesson 10: Departments in a Company

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Tom and Kazuya are talking about their jobs.

Tom: Where do you work, Kazuya?

Kazuya: I work in the Accounting Department at Ample Computers. What about you?

Tom: I'm with the Sales and Marketing Division at Royce Chocolates.

Kazuya: Do you like your job?

Tom: Pretty much. I get to travel around Asia. How about you?

Kazuya: I usually sit all day in the office and attend to the company's finances. But I like my job.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. It is really humid in Japan during the summer. How about in Thailand?
2. Everybody is planning to go shopping tonight. What about you?
3. My family is going to Italy for summer vacation. What about your family?

* How [What] about ~? / ~はどうですか?

3. Your Task

A high school student (= your tutor) is asking what it is exactly you do at work. Give him/her details of this job.

Mention the department, the company name and what kind of work you do.

4. Let's Talk

Describe the department you work in. What's your role in the department?

What department would you really like to work in? Explain your answer.

What do you like about your department? Why?

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words as precisely as possible.
