

Lesson 28: Bank Transactions

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Takuya is withdrawing money from his account. Peter is the bank teller.

Takuya: Good afternoon. I would like to make a withdrawal. Here's my passbook.

Peter: How much would you like to take out?

Takuya: I'm going to need $2,500.

Peter: Okay, sir. I'll need an identification card, and please sign this withdrawal slip.

Takuya: (After a while) Here's my driver's license, and I've signed the slip, too.

Peter: Please wait for a moment while I work on your transaction.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. Can you work on this month's sales report? I need it for tomorrow.

2. A: Where's the report I requested?

B: I'm still working on it.

3. Jack is in the garage working on his car.

* work on ~ / ~に取り組む

3. Your Task

You tried to withdraw money from the ATM but the machine wouldn't accept your PIN number. You decided to go to your bank and report what happened. A bank employee (=your tutor) asks for your name and account number. He also fixes your problem with your PIN number. Thank the bank employee for his/her help.

4. Let's Talk

How do you usually withdraw your money: through a bank teller or through an ATM? Why?

In Japan, do you often wait in line for a long time to do a bank transaction? Tell your tutor about it.

What bank transactions do you often have to do? Explain your answer.

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words as precisely as possible.
