

Lesson 80: Self Introduction 3 (Introducing Your Company)

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Kaori is at a party hosted by her friend, Jack. She's just met Mr. Weaving, and she's telling him about her company.

Kaori: Where do you work, Mr. Weaving?

Mr. Weaving: I work for XYZ Bank. What do you do, Kaori?

Kaori: I'm a programmer for a software company called Ample, Inc.

Mr. Weaving: I've never heard of Ample Inc. Is that a new company?

Kaori: It's been operating for five years now. It is a small company but we have a lot of foreign clients.

Mr. Weaving: Most successful software companies started as small businesses. For example, Google only had 2 workers when it started.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. I have many foreign friends. For example, my best friend Mike is from Australia.
2. We do a lot of recycling in my office. For example, we often use recycled paper.
3. Tech companies are now making cheaper products. ASUS, for example, has started to sell tablets that only cost $80 each.

* for example / 例えば

3. Your Task

You are at a seminar, and there are many people from different companies there. The person sitting next to you (=your tutor) is interested in your company.

Give her some information, and then ask her about her company.

4. Let's Talk

Talk about your experience in introducing your company to other people.

What are some of the important things to say when introducing your company?

How often do you talk about your company to other people?

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words as precisely as possible.
