

Lesson 84: Presentation 3 (Various Type of Businesses)

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Takeshi works for a web design company. He is introducing his company's services to a group of business executives. Mr. Moore is one of the group members.

Takeshi: Thank you for meeting with me today.

Mr. Moore: No problem. We really want to learn more about your services.

Takeshi: I would like to show you an example of our work (pointing to the computer screen).

Mr. Moore: The web design looks very good.

Takeshi: We can set up a credit card payment system so that your customers can enjoy shopping online.

Mr. Moore: I agree. A business website calls for a credit card payment system.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. A: I got promoted today.

B: This calls for a celebration.

2. Jack, the boss is calling for you. He's in the conference room.

3. The government called for international assistance when the country was hit by a big earthquake.

* call for ~ / ~を求める、要求する; ~を必要とする

3. Your Task

You work for a catering company, and now you are talking to a customer (=your tutor). His company is planning to hold a retirement party for their company president. Give him some information about your company. Here are some details: 1) You have a very modern, spacious and well-equipped kitchen in Tokyo. 2) You once worked for Ken Watanabe, and there were 1000 guests in his party. 3) You can offer Japanese, American, or European dishes.

4. Let's Talk

Talk about a business presentation that you have seen. Was it a good presentation?

How should you dress up when doing a business presentation?

What are some important materials for a business presentation?

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words as precisely as possible.
